Request for Funding

Event: Community Gilbert and Sullivan sing

Date: Summer 2009 (date to be determined)

Place: Congregation Mishkon Tephilo, 206 Main Street, Venice

Requested by: Congregation Mishkon Tephilo (Rabbi Dan Shevitz)

Description of the event:

The city has many ethnic, religious, and political groups, and there is much that these groups cannot do together. Civic responsibility dictates that what we can do together, we should do together. One thing we can do together is sing. Though community Messiah sings are better known, there are great numbers of Savoyards who would treasure an evening of shared Gilbert and Sullivan as an opportunity to meet and share song with their neighbors

The program I am proposing has no audience. Everyone who shows up is in it. We will select one operetta (I think the first year must be Pirates of Penzance, but this can be negotiated). The chorus will consist of everyone who attends. Principal parts will be taken by volunteers, who will be asked to show up a half hour early so the parts can be divided. Scores and libretti will be available to purchase at the door, or people can bring <sup>free</sup> their own.

The staff will be a director and a pianist. The synagogue will provide the room, security, food, and janitorial services. The program should be well publicized in the Westside areas.

Budget:

Director	$500.
Pianist	500
Advertising	500
Printing	300
Rent, security, food, janitorial	donated
