

MASTERS IN THE CHAPEL PRESENTS
A FREE COMMUNITY CONCERT
THE D'AMORE DUO
FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 7-8 PM

Coming to us from Washington D.C, the D'Amore Duo brings together the outstanding instrumentalists Yeon-jee Sohn, oboe and William Feasley, guitar. Described by the Washington Post as a "perfect partnership of sound", the duo has performed widely at such venues as the National Cathedral, the Arts Centre in Christchurch, New Zealand and live on ABC Int'l Radio out of Sydney Australia.

The program will include music for oboe and guitar by 19th century composers Napoleon Coste and Ferdinand Rebay along with compositions written for the duo by the Argentine composers Marcelo Ferraris and Tango Master Claudio Bruzzese, and the Brazilian composer Marcos Vinicius.

Thanks to the generosity of individual donors and funding from the Venice Neighborhood Council's Community Improvement Program, this concert is a gift from us to you to enjoy absolutely free.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH OF VENICE
815 VENICE BOULEVARD • VENICE, CA 90291
PHONE 310-821-2740 flvenice.org

