WEST LOS ANGELES SERVICES OVERVIEW

Jewish Family Service of Los Angeles (JFS) provides a number of services for older adults living on the Westside of the city of Los Angeles. These programs include:

Social Services

(310) 231-9228

JFS provides a comprehensive family of services for older adults to help them remain healthy, active, and in their homes. Services include:

- ✓ Counseling
- ✓ Information and Referral
- ✓ Caregiver Support
- ✓ Help filling out forms, writing letters, etc..
- ✓ Care Management
- ✓ Support Groups
- ✓ In-Home Assistance

If you need help with any issue, please call JFS Social Services at (310) 231-9228. Or you can come in during “walk-in hours” (M, Tu, Th, F from 8:30 – 12:00). At Felicia Mahood, we can provide assistance in English and Farsi. (Additional languages are available at other JFS sites.)

Meals for Homebound Older Adults

(323) 937-5852

Expecting to be laid up with surgery? Do you know someone who can't get out any more? JFS offers a home delivered meal service for older adults who are permanently or temporarily homebound. To find out more about the program, please call (323) 937-5852.

Door-to-Door Transportation

(310) 231-0369

JFS offers door-to-door transportation for adults age 65 or older who need door-to-door service and are unable to access other modes of transportation. Certain restrictions apply. Disabled adults over the age of 18 may be eligible for this program. Depending on availability, rides can be arranged from 8:30am – 3:00pm Monday thru Friday. If you are a first-time user, you should call several days in advance to set up your file. The JFS Transportation office can be reached at (310) 231-0369.
