C Letter to City Clerk Requesting Election Costs Linda Lucks
(President@VeniceNC.org)

MOTION: The Venice Neighborhood Council has participated in the Election Survey as presented by the City Clerk and agrees that elections need to be held in 2012. However, the VNC has great reservations as to unknown costs associated with any of the choices and has concerns about insuring the integrity of elections regardless of the methodology used. Without knowledge of these costs, NC's are unable to make informed choices. As the City is again considering cuts from 6-12% of NC budgets, this information is critical.

The VNC requests that the City Clerk itemize the specific dollar amounts to be attached to each possible election method and to resubmit the survey for Neighborhood Council input prior to publishing any survey results.

The VNC Task Force seeks to have the VNC correct this misconception by resending its July 29, 2011 letter specifying its objections to the move and stating this position as the official position of the VNC.
